

10. December 2009 – what's happening today

10:00-12:00 Discussion and lecture on Greenmap.org. More than 600 towns and villages in 55 different countries have come together to promote sustainable lifestyles. By mapping and portraying green solutions locally, they give both residents and visitors a chance for green living in everyday life. The debate takes place in the gray room on Klimaforum09 in DGI-byen.

Jens Hvass +45 21 17 14 21 jens.hvass@a21.dk <http://www.greenmap.org/>

10:00-15:00 Copenhagen Climate Network and the Kaos Pilots invite to an all-day conference at the parliament, Christiansborg, where politicians and business people to discuss sustainability. The creator of Mr. Green, Mr. Christian Gade, and the Indian ambassador will be present at the conference which will take place at the Common Room of Christiansborg.

Marianne Poulsen + 45 39 48 18 10, marianne@ccn2009.org <http://www.ccn2009.org>

13:25-14:00 Michel and Mie at 13 and 16 years behave their passionate rap for the climate named "This is our land". It happens at the Youth Summit on Climate Experimentarium in Hellerup and immediately after, the scientist Katherine Richardson will explain how to gain influence in the climate debate to the many young people present. The summit is the culmination of a teaching program on climate to grade 7 and 8 students in selected Danish municipalities.

Stine Krog-Pedersen +45 61 26 00 31 stinekp@experimentarium.dk
<http://www.experimentarium.dk/forsiden/>

14:00 A virtual thunderstorm will hit Bella Center today when the organisation 350.org and the International Youth Climate will make a happening under the theme "we will not die quietly" after the words of the threatened Island state Tuvalu. Exact location at Bella Center to be confirmed.

Diana Vogtel + 45 52 69 53 24 diana@350.org www.350.org

14:00-18:00 The Danish "FN-gruppen" invites the press and others interested in a special briefing called "The Model United Nations Climate Conference" on the progress of the COP15 negotiations and the political agenda. The briefing takes places at HK Hovedstaden's premises at Artillerivej 30 at Amager. Enrolment is necessary at the email below, press please call beforehand.

Christine Stilling Jessen christine@una.dk , <http://www.una.dk>

16.30-18:00 A guided tour on the art festival Glowing Climate will leave from Islands Brygge Metro Station. The Glowing Climate festival has shed light over the neighbourhood Ørestad since mid-November and now, there are illuminating guides.

Hannah Hoffman Hesse +45 51 34 43 16 hh@illumenarts.dk <http://www.illumenarts.dk>

17:00 Opening of the international photo exhibition "Consequences". Nine of the world's leading photojournalists:, including the Danish Jan Grarup and the American Jan Lowenstein exhibits at DASK Gallery at Flæsketorvet 24 in the brown Meat City in Vesterbro, inner Copenhagen.

Ulrik Jantzen +45 20 72 61 41 ulrik@dasburo.dk <http://consequencesbynoor.com/page/2/>

17:00-17:30 DanChurchAid arranges a "Follow Me - Climate flashmob" and it starts in front of McDonald's at the beginning of Strøget/City Hall Square to Frue Plads to visualize climate refugees. The climate refugees stop at DanChurchAid climate refugee camp on Frue Plads.

Gritt Holm Hedehus, +45 29 70 06 12 ghh@dca.dk

http://www.noedhjaelp.dk/i\_danmark/kampagner/countdown\_to\_copenhagen

17:00-19:30 Do journalists have a special responsibility to report on climate change? The winners of the Earth Journalism Awards will be presented at the Danish Film Institute in Gothersgade 55 in inner Copenhagen. The role of the press is up for discussion and the organizers are Reporters Without Borders and International News.

Patch Bodenham +45 61 72 57 07 pbodenham@internews.fr
<http://awards.earthjournalism.org/content/spread-word>

17:00-19:00 Danish political commentator Lotte Hansen and PerMeilstrup, climate editor of the newsletter "Monday Morning" will be talking on the role of the European Union in the climate issue. The venue is "Climate for Dummies" at Borups Højskole, Frederiksholms Kanal 24 in inner city.

Berit Asmussen +45 33 36 40 40 ba@ffd.dk www.rideplanetearth.org www.klimafordummies.dk

18:00-20:00 Green urbanism. Two major architectural profiles, Australian Steffen Lehmann and British Sunand Prasad, give lectures at the Danish Architecture Center at Strandgade 27B in downtown Copenhagen. Both work on finding pragmatic, innovative and strategic solutions to support sustainable development and architecture.

Fredrik Gyllenhoff, +45 20 82 19 34 fgy@dac.dk <http://www.dac.dk>

19:00-19:20 At Christiania's Bottom Meeting, today's theme is social ecology and poverty. Hosszú Zoltan, from the Hungarian "Krihna EcoValley", talks about the principles of the small community with just 200 people.

Britta Lillesøe +45 20 64 08 34 mail@cakultur.dk <http://www.climatebottom.dk/da/dage/10>

This top ten is compiled by People's Climate Action - more info and registration via mail to: nyhedsbrev@peoplesclimateaction.dk