

December 11 2009 - highlights from today's NGO events

10:00 Banner workshop at Råhuset, Onkel Danny's Plads allows participants to create their own slogan to rally the 12th of December. Sea Change Artist Collective has hand-printed characters that you can use in making your own banner.

Katherine Ball +1 313 605 2924 katherine@seachangegallery.org <http://www.seachangegallery.org>

11:30-13:00 Denmark Pedagogical University holds two press conferences during the conference "Education Can Change the Climate?" At the first press conference on the establishing of a Danish Regional Centre of Expertise for Education, the Danish Minister of Education Mr. Bertel Haarder will attend. The second one at 12:30 is a presentation of the results of the project "Climate Change and Education". The event takes place at Denmark Pedagogical University, Tuborgvej 164 at Copenhagen Northwest.

Jeppe Læssøe, +45 24 59 44 46 jepl@dpu.dk <http://www.dpu.dk>

11:00-12:00 Winter Swimming is a great experience for both Danes and climate guests and at the Harbour Bath at Island Brygge 11. Afterwards, there is a warm cup of cocoa at the Islands Brygge Culture House with one of the mayors of Copenhagen, Klaus Bondam.

Claus Back Schmidt +45 33 66 58 74 clschm@tmf.kk.dk

12:00-14:00 The Tibetan nomads have lived for a millennium on the Tibetan plateau. Their lives are now threatened by both climate change and human rights, while China has plans to move nomads from grazing areas on the roof of the world. Presentations and discussions taking place in Greenland House, Løvstræde 6 in inner city.

Charlotte Mathiassen +45 42 28 21 36 nyimailing@mail.dk www.tibetthirdpole.org

14:00 Departure of the seven-hour interfaith pilgrimage that brings participants through the streets of Copenhagen. During the trip there will be meetings with Judaism, Buddhism, Islam and Christianity. The event starts at Krystalgade 12 and the participants can choose between walking the entire route or only a part of it.

Ida Lidell +45 20 46 27 87 lidell_ida@hotmail.com, <http://www.climatepilgrims.dk>

14:15-17:00 GAIA Education is a global education program, tested 46 times on six different continents. The education program provides a model for sustainable communities, where the creation of new world pictures in ecology, social structure and economy. The events take place at Christiania, Fredens Eng, the large tent.

Hildur Jackson +45 40 58 75 01 hildurjackson@gaia.org <http://www.climatebottom.dk>

16:00-18:00 The film Festival "Indigenous Voices on Climate Change" shows a series of films from minority groups around the World and how to adapt to climate change. The films are a part of the National Museum's special exhibition on "rain forest Indians" at Ny Vestergade 10, inner city.

CITT Williams +45 52 67 95 62 williams@unu.edu <http://www.iwgia.org>

20:00-22:00 "Swimming With the Polar Bears" is a funny film in which actor Mel England in collaboration with film producer Jill André examines the links between modern life, the Eskimos original mythology and endangered species. Appears in the Green Hall, Klimaforum09 at DGI-byen, Onkel Dannys Plads

Hans Henrik Samuelsen, +45 25 92 15 67, hanshenrik@klimaforum09.org
<http://swimmingwiththepolarbears.com>

20:00-22:00 “The Housewarming of Hope” is an event for all the citizens of Copenhagen who have opened their homes to climate guests. Hosts and guests are invited by New Life Copenhagen who has made it happen and everyone can pledge their oath to new and sustainable living at COP Culture Pavilion at City Hall Square.

Sixten Kai Nielsen +45 61 66 15 66 sixten@wooloo.org <http://www.newlifecopenhagen.dk>

21:00-02:00 Distortion 95.5Mhz is a live music festival where everyone is invited to bring their old ghetto blasters and create their own music. Later in the evening, everyone will go together to the ship Stubnitz docked at Langebro, where the after party will take place.

Thomas Bailey, +45 26 82 92 58, thomas@goldendays.dk <http://www.hopenhagenlive.dk>

21:00-00:00 A three-hour concert by Spanish Ojos de Brujo - a nine man's big band from Barcelona – that will play "jipop flemenkillo", a wonderful mix of flamenco, rumba and hip hop. Orange hall Klimaforum09, DGI-byen. Hans Henrik Samuelsen, +45 25 92 15 67, hanshenrik@klimaforum09.org <http://www.ojosdebrujo.com>